Miss Lydia Maria Child, the well-known authoress, died yesterday morning at Wayland, Mass., at the age of seventy-eight years.

It seems that the republican majority in Ohio is only one thousand more than that for Governor Foster a year ago, although a much larger vote was polled.

COLONEL John Ballafant, a member of the last legislature, has been running as an independent candidate for congress against Commodore Whitthorne, but seeing that his candidacy would probably cause the election of Hughes, a republican, he has withdrawn. This ensures the election of Whitthorne by a large majority.

The New York Herald figures it up that if the tide continues to run in favor of the republicans they will probably have a majority in the house of representatives. A majority is 147, and there are 130 republicans in the present house. They needed seven more members, and have already gained it, it is claimed, one in Oregon, one in Vermont, three in Indiana and six in Ohio—altogether, eleven. Should they gain six more in the November election, they will be about even. Democrats all along the line should be on their guard—we cannot afford to lose a man. As far as Tennessee is concerned, all democrats stand by the regular nominees for congress and we do not expect to lose a single member. If each state will take care of itself as well in this respect the next congress will still be democratic.

Dr. Fulton Excited.
He is Reported at His Prayer-Meeting for Carrying Politics into the Church.

N. Y. Sun.
The Rev. Dr. Justin D. Fulton, on Friday, published a letter in Brooklyn announcing that he was going to speak for tariffed in his temple on Thursday evening next. The letter was written in a strain so offensive to conservative men that it greatly displeased A. T. Henry, the chairman of the board of trustees of Dr. Fulton's church, and at the close of the prayer-meeting on Friday evening Mr. Henry stood up and announced that he disapproved of Dr. Fulton's decision to carry politics into the church. "I was fully surprised," said Mr. Henry, "to read that letter, and I could hardly believe my eyes. My God, how we are to be misled! We should not be misled by such a man. Let politics alone. May the Lord help us."

"Amen," said Dr. Fulton, who was evidently very much irritated by the interruption of the meeting, and may the Lord help our dear brother. There is hope for him, and perhaps, if he attends the meeting and hears my speech, the result may be his conversion." Mr. Henry was a serious look as he arose again and said: "I hope the pastor will repent and forsake his sin, and ask for forgiveness for writing that letter."

should make no effort to prevent the republicans from using the hall. Mr. Henry has been one of Dr. Fulton's most ardent supporters, and some time ago, when Dr. Fulton and Deacon Young were quarreling about the admission of a colored convert, Mr. Henry supported Dr. Fulton, who was the colored man's advocate.

Dr. Fulton yesterday freely told the story of the scene, and described as an attempt to "bulldoze" him.

Railroad Notes.
Nashville Banner: It is thought that Major R. T. Wilson, of New York, Col. C. M. McKee, of Knoxville, and Col. Cole, of this city, all employed men, sagacious, and eminent in railroad business, will ultimately own and control a consolidated line from Norfolk to Memphis, and from Norfolk to the Gulf of Mexico. The gentlemen alluded to have the means and the intelligence to prosecute a successful issue such an undertaking. That they will yet do it, we cannot allow ourselves to question. In the meantime there are strong assurances that the same combination will, at an early day, push forward the Knoxville and Ohio road to Louisville, Ky.

Contagious Diseases.
New York Herald, 18:1
The statement that deaths from contagious diseases are on the increase in New York is painful. The unusual weather may to a certain degree account for it, but the fault is with our rulers. New York is very dirty and no pains are taken to clean it. Baldy Smith is trying to elect Hancock, and John Kelly is worrying over the mayoralty and the city is neglected. Typhus and diphtheria are welcomed. The shadow of death falls on a hundred homes.

Sanitary science is so far advanced, and the means for the prevention of certain diseases so well known, that a failure to apply them is a crime. New York is a rich city. Our citizens can afford to pay any fair tax for sanitary purposes. The natural situation is one of the healthiest in the world. We could have a system of drainage and sewerage that would virtually expel many of the diseases that now bring sorrow to our homes. If Mr. Kelly, who rules New York, would drop the leaves and fishes business, and give himself to the yearning desire for the improvement of the city, there is no question he would incur that the people would not welcome, and his name would go down to posterity as a benefactor of his race.

BY CABLE.
LONDON, October 21.—A dispatch from Berlin says: "General Driplski pasha, has issued a notification saying that his mission is of a purely private character." It had been reported that he was here on business in connection with the engagement of German officers for the Ottoman service.

PARIS, October 21.—M. Felix Payat was president of the revolutionary meeting held in Bellevue yesterday. The meeting passed a resolution engaging to become jointly responsible for the penalty imposed upon M. Payat.

BERLIN, October 21.—Die West- Zeitung says at an early meeting the bundersrath representative of Hamburg will propose a proclamation of the state of the seiges there. Prussia will make a similar proposal in regard to Altona, Othenssen and Wandsbeck, but Saxony will decline for the present at least, to take any repressive measures in regard to Leipzig.

LONDON, October 21.—It is said the Russian finance minister has decided on a complete revision of the tariff and higher protective duties will be levied on imports of tallow, grain and coal. Duties on cotton and cotton goods are to be completely revised.

PARIS, October 21.—Much sensation was caused by Duc De Chartres at a military dinner at Eversay, proposing to visit to France and her government, and to the president of the republic. Legitimists consider this in direct acceptance by him of the republic. The duke, in his speech said, in America, where he passed part of his youth, it was customary to give such loyal toasts before all others.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.
A Town Destroyed—Loss, $250,000.
CINCINNATI, October 21.—At Mt. Vernon, Indiana, a fire occurred early yesterday morning and destroyed a large portion of the town, causing damage to the amount of $250,000, on which there was about $75,000 insurance. Among the principal losers are Fabrice, Boyce & Co, dry goods and groceries; Harlan & Co, stone grinding store; Mrs. Bates, Geo. Harvick, dwellings; Mr. Vernon, banking company, Messrs. Tiedorf & Williams, Peter Walter, James Dennis, restaurant; Isaac Kahn, John Zimmerman, George Feltman, Freeman & Wolf, butchers; A. J. Clark, jeweler.

What is it?
STURGEON BAY, MICH., October 21.—The mail carrier who came from North Bay, last night, reports that the masts of a vessel are sticking out of the water at that place. No portions of the wreck or anything leading to the identification of the vessel has been found.

Christianity Making Peace.
PANAMA, October 12.—Lima dates are to September 25th. United States Minister Christianity has the following plan for the preliminaries of peace: Chili, Peru and Bolivia will each elect three commissioners to discuss the conditions of peace, to meet in Peruvian territory occupied by the Chilean army, the United States minister taking part in the conference as a friendly mediator.

Six millions of paper money is authorized to be issued by the Chilean treasury. The Bolivian congress has sanctioned a law authorizing the executive to mortgage or sell all national property, and municipalities are also authorized to proceed in the same way, with the consent of the government. The proceeds of such sales are to be applied towards defraying expenses of war. General Diaz has been deprived of the right of citizenship, his inaptitude and cowardice having brought upon the country humiliation and dishonor. Two boys, one twelve and the other eight years of age, quarreled at Falmouth, Maine, about a cat, when the elder seized a gun and shot his little companion to death. He was discovered by a neighbor in the act of burying the body of his victim.—[Chicago Times.] The boy that was murdered was a quiet, peaceable and gentle boy of the improved New England pattern, but the fellow who "seized a gun," shot him to death and then tried to bury him out of sight, was no doubt the son of some long haired, red shirted southern, most probably from Kemper or Yazoo county, Mississippi. Nothing but the "damnable savagery of slavery" could have induced a twelve year old boy to become a murderer. The solid south did it.—[Vicksburg Commercial.] Agent Meeker's remains were removed from the White River Agency to Grand Colorado, a few days ago. Miss Josephine Meeker, the agent's daughter, who passed through a terrible ordeal while a captive of the Utes, has regained her health.
